

About Us

A Center of Excellence

The Summit Healthplex is a multi-practice medical facility conveniently located on Bullsboro Drive in Newnan, Georgia approximately thirty minutes south of Hartsfield-Jackson Airport.

Housing a collaboration of healthcare professionals, the team at The Summit Healthplex ensures that each of our state-of-the-art medical practices are devoted to serving the individual, working in conjunction with each other, all for the betterment and care of each patient. Specialties are offered in the areas of preventative, diagnostic and rehabilitative medicine.

Our compassionate staff distinguishes itself through a strong professional commitment to the health needs of each individual who visits the Healthplex.

Our wish is for each patient to experience a community of people who are genuinely concerned about you, your health and your wellness.

Community is what the Summit Healthplex is all about
